In Loving Memory

Patricia Cobbs

Owner, JLC DayCare

Ms. Cobbs is the late owner of JLC Daycare in Swissvale, Pennsylvania, which is designated as a Keystone STAR 3 child care program. She leaves behind a legacy filled with children who are the leaders of tomorrow. Miss Pat, as she was lovingly referred to, was a woman who demonstrated respect for all and was a tireless advocate for children and families. She was a long-time member of PennAEYC and an active member of the Pittsburgh AEYC. Ms. Cobbs served as a Board Member for the Community College of Allegheny County, Family and Children's Studies and was a member of the Woodland Hills Pre-K Collaborative and Woodland Hills School District Pre-K Transition Team. In addition to Pat's professional support she was a strong supporter of families through work with the VIP Clothing and Food Drive Distribution in her community.
