

VOICE for Children

2022 VOICE for Children Award Recipient

Christina L. Saunders, Ed. D. Candidate

Center Director, Crayon Clubhouse II

Christina Saunders has devoted her career to providing high quality, developmentally appropriate learning experiences for young children. Christina earned her Associate degree in Early Childhood education from Kaplan University continued her education, obtaining her bachelor's degree and MS in Human Services and is currently writing her dissertation for her doctorate in Early Childhood Education at Walden University.

Currently, Christina is the director of Crayon Clubhouse Bullskin Early Learning Center striving to serve the highest quality early childhood education to Connellsville and surrounding areas.

Christina has mentored countless other professionals in the early learning community and is actively engaged in various advocacy efforts on behalf of young children and the early care and education profession. Ms. Saunders continues to advocate and speaking with legislators to share important information about children, families and providers. Christina believes that investing in our youngest Pennsylvanians is the right investment to be made. Our youngest Pennsylvanians are our future!

