

VOICE for Children

2022 VOICE for Children Award Recipient

Minnette Taylor M. Ed.

Owner, G & T Daycare Montessori Program

Founder & CEO, Mini Montessori Academy

Educational Director, Education Institute for Early Intervention

Minnette Taylor, M. Ed. has devoted more than 23 years to the field of education, earning a dual bachelor's in Management and Education and a master's degree in Early Childhood Education Montessori Teaching from Chestnut Hill College.

Minnette holds many certificates and licenses including a Pennsylvania Quality Assurance certified PQAS trainer and certified American Montessori Society

Montessori teacher, National Association for Family Child Care trainer and observer and Child Development Associate Professional Development Specialist.

She also holds several national and state memberships in the National Association for Family Childcare Accreditation (NAFCC), the Pennsylvania Child Care

Association, the American Montessori Society, the North American Montessori Teacher Association, and the International Dyslexia Association PA.

She is a coach for the 1199c Pennsylvania Apprenticeship program for Philadelphia and Delaware County. She continues to advocate at the local and state level to increase the training and education of early childcare professionals around Montessori education. Minnette has presented Montessori topics at various conferences, lectures, and seminars throughout the tri-state area.

In 2021, Minnette became the first Pennsylvania State Representative of the NAFCC, where she works directly with family childcare providers, state and local organizations, groups, and stakeholders to help shape childcare policies and activities in Pennsylvania and nationally.

She is a founding member of the Family Child Care Coalition.

