

Ann Marie Healy has led the Philadelphia Health Partnership for over 25 years as its Executive Director and Administrator. She has 30 years of nonprofit leadership, management, and development experience. Ann Marie began her career in nonprofit management as Vice President for Operations and Development of 10,000 Friends of Pennsylvania, a nonprofit dedicated to revitalizing cities and towns, conserving rural lands, and reducing sprawl. In addition, she served as the administrator for the Union Benevolent Association, one of the oldest charities in continuous existence in Philadelphia and as the executive assistant to the president of the Pennsylvania Environmental Council.

Ann Marie has served on many boards and advisory councils in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Philanthropy Network Greater Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Association of the Education of Young Children, and the Salem Health and Wellness Foundation in Salem County in Salem County, New Jersey. She is the co-chair of the Pennsylvania Health Funders Collaborative and serves on the Steering Committee of the Early Childhood Funders Collaborative. A Drexel University Leading for Change Fellow, she holds a Bachelor's of Liberal Studies degree from Saint Joseph's University and is a graduate of the Nonprofit Executive Leadership Institute at Bryn Mawr College.
