

Stephen Fernando

After graduating from law school, Stephen and his family moved to North Carolina where he practiced for a mid-sized general practice law firm. In 2018, he and his family returned to Northeastern Pennsylvania where he grew up and he immediately joined North Penn Legal Services as a full-time attorney. He now is Managing Attorney of the Scranton Office. Stephen received his J.D. from Duquesne University School of Law and his B.A. from the University of Scranton. He has four children.