

Heather Smoyer is currently the Policy Advisor for Primrose Schools, and a strong advocate for the early childhood education field. Heather graduated from Georgia State University with a master's degree in human resource development in 2005 and from Brewton Parker College in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in political science, Pre-Law, and secondary education. After working in the HR field for many years, she worked as a childcare director for 16 years and a government funding administrator supporting PA and AL. Heather lives in State College, PA with her husband of 20 years and her three daughters.

Heather has served on an accreditation team for Cognia, was a Bright from the Start Trainer, and trained future directors, and franchise owners in the industry.

Heather is currently a board member for the Provider Advisory Board and for the Pennsylvania Association for the Education of Young Children, serving also as the Governance Committee Chair and on the Public Policy Committee. Heather also serves as the Co-Chair of the CCQR SAC committee for OCDEL. Heather is passionate about servant leadership, retention, and family experience and serves the field as a PQAS instructor.
